1.1 Definitions

- Section 9 of the Child Protection Act 1999 - “Harm”, to a child, is any detrimental effect of a significant nature on the child’s physical, psychological or emotional wellbeing.
 1. It is immaterial how the harm is caused.
 2. Harm can be caused by:
 - a) Physical, psychological or emotional abuse or neglect; or
 - b) Sexual abuse or exploitation.
 3. Harm can be caused by:
 - a) A single act, omission or circumstance; or
 - b) A series or combination of acts, omissions or circumstances.
- Section 10 of the Child Protection Act 1999 - A “child in need of protection” is a student who:
 1. Has suffered significant harm, is suffering significant harm, or is at unacceptable risk of suffering significant harm; and
 2. Does not have a parent able and willing to protect the child from the harm.
- Section 364 of the Education (General Provisions) Act 2006 - “Sexual abuse”, in relation to a relevant person, includes sexual behaviour involving the relevant person and another person in the following circumstances:
 1. The other person bribes, coerces, exploits, threatens or is violent toward the relevant person;
 2. The relevant person has less power than the other person;
 3. There is a significant disparity between the relevant person and the other person in intellectual capacity or maturity.

1.2 Health and Safety

The school has written processes in place about the health and safety of its staff and students in accordance with relevant workplace health and safety legislation¹.

1.3 Responding to Reports of Harm

When the school receives any information alleging 'harm'² to a student (other than harm arising from physical or sexual abuse) it will deal with the situation compassionately and fairly so as to minimise any likely harm to the extent it reasonably can. This is set out in the school’s Child Risk Management Strategy. Information relating to physical or sexual abuse is handled under obligations to report set out in this policy³.

1.4 Conduct of Staff and Students

All staff, contractors and volunteers must ensure that their behaviour towards and relationships with students reflect proper standards of care for students. Staff, contractors and volunteers must not cause harm to students⁴.

1.5 Reporting Inappropriate Behaviour

If a student considers the behaviour of a staff member to be inappropriate, the student should report the behaviour to:-

- Mr Andrew North

or

- Mr Craig Young

1.6 Dealing with Report of Inappropriate Behaviour

A staff member who receives a report of inappropriate behaviour must report it to the Principal. Where the Principal is the subject of the report of inappropriate behaviour, the staff member must inform a member of the school's governing body⁵. Reports will be dealt with via NAS193.001.ADM - Dispute Resolution Policy and NAS199.001.ADM – Guidelines for Handling Complaints and Appeals.

1.7 Reporting Sexual Abuse⁶

Section 366 of the Education (General Provisions) Act 2006 states that if a staff member becomes aware, or reasonably suspects in the course of their employment at the school, that any of the following has been sexually abused by another person:

- a) A student under 18 years attending the school;
- b) A pre-preparatory aged child registered in a pre-preparatory learning program at the school;
- c) A person with a disability who:
 - i. Under section 420(2) of the Education (General Provisions) Act 2006 is being provided with special education at the school; and
 - ii. Is not enrolled in the preparatory year at the school.

The staff member must give a written report about the abuse or suspected abuse to the Principal or to a director of the school's governing body (Education CEO, Conference President, Conference Secretary or Conference CFO) immediately.

The school's Principal or the director of the school's governing body must immediately give a copy of the report to a police officer.

If the first person who becomes aware or reasonably suspects sexual abuse is the school's Principal, the Principal must give a written report about the abuse, or suspected abuse to a police officer immediately and must also give a copy of the report to a director of the school's governing body.

⁵ Education (Accreditation of Non-State Schools) Regulation 2001 (Qld) s.10(3)

A report under this section must include the following particulars:

- a) The name of the person giving the report (the first person);
- b) The student's name and sex;
- c) Details of the basis for the first person becoming aware, or reasonably suspecting, that the student has been sexually abused by another person;
- d) Details of the abuse or suspected abuse;
- e) Any of the following information of which the first person is aware:
 - i. The student's age;
 - ii. The identity of the person who has abused, or is suspected to have abused, the student;
 - iii. The identity of anyone else who may have information about the abuse or suspected abuse⁷.

1.8 Reporting Likely Sexual Abuse⁸

Section 366A of the Education (General Provisions) Act 2006 states that if a staff member reasonably suspects in the course of their employment at the school, that any of the following is likely to be sexually abused by another person:

- a) A student under 18 years attending the school;
- b) A pre-preparatory aged child registered in a pre-preparatory learning program at the school;
- c) A person with a disability who:
 - i. Under section 420(2) of the Education (General Provisions) Act 2006 is being provided with special education at the school; and
 - ii. Is not enrolled in the preparatory year at the school.

The staff member must give a written report about the suspicion to the Principal or to a director of the school's governing body immediately.

The school's Principal or the director of the school's governing body must immediately give a copy of the report to a police officer.

If the first person who reasonably suspects likely sexual abuse is the school's Principal, the Principal must give a written report about the suspicion to a police officer immediately and must also give a copy of the report to a director of the school's governing body.

A report under this section must include the following particulars:

- a) The name of the person giving the report (the first person);
- b) The student's name and sex;
- c) Details of the basis for the first person reasonably suspecting that the student is likely to be sexually abused by another person;
- d) Any of the following information of which the first person is aware:
 - i. The student's age;
 - ii. The identity of the person who has abused, or is suspected to be likely to abuse, the student;
 - iii. The identity of anyone else who may have information about suspected likelihood of abuse⁹.

1.9 Reporting Physical and Sexual Abuse

Under Section 13E (3) of the Child Protection Act 1999, if a doctor, a registered nurse or a teacher forms a 'reportable suspicion' about a child in the course of their engagement in their profession, they must make a written report.

A reportable suspicion about a child is a reasonable suspicion that the child:

- a) Has suffered, is suffering, or is at unacceptable risk of suffering, significant harm caused by physical or sexual abuse; and
- b) May not have a parent able and willing to protect the child from the harm.

The doctor, nurse or teacher must give a written report to the Chief Executive of the Department of Communities, Child Safety and Disability Services (or other department administering the Child Protection Act 1999). The doctor, nurse or teacher should give a copy of the report to the Principal.

A report under this section must include the following particulars:

- a) State the basis on which the person has formed the reportable suspicion; and
- b) Include the information prescribed by regulation, to the extent of the person's knowledge¹⁰.

1.10 Awareness

The school will inform staff, students and parents of its processes relating to the health, safety and conduct of staff and students in communications to them and it will publish these processes on its website¹¹. Staff will be informed through the process of compulsory annual training. Students will be informed through posters, notices and awareness sessions during chapel programs. Parents will be informed through newsletters.

1.11 Training

The school will train its staff in processes relating to the health, safety and conduct of staff and students on their induction and will refresh training annually. Annual training will be delivered to school staff in group training sessions at the beginning of the school year. Training will be delivered by a designated person with appropriate experience and knowledge of the requirements of the Child Protection Risk Management Strategy. On line training through the safety management web site will be a requirement for any staff members who are not present for the group session or who begin their employment after the training session has been conducted.

1.12 Implementing the Processes

The school will ensure it is implementing processes relating to the health, safety and conduct of staff and students by auditing compliance with the processes annually¹².

1.13 Accessibility of Processes

Processes relating to the health, safety and conduct of staff and students are accessible on the school website and will be available on request from the school administration¹³.

1.14 Complaints Procedure

Suggestions of non-compliance with the school's processes may be submitted as complaints under Seventh-day Adventist Schools (Northern Australia) Ltd. Dispute Resolution/Complaints Handling Procedure.¹⁴
